HOUSE OF EMOTIONS

Beauty is Our Gentle Protest

The collage consists of four distinct artistic images. On the left, a woman with red hair and red lips wears a voluminous dress made of pink and orange petals. In the center, white fabric flows and pools in a gallery space. On the right, a small figure stands on a rainbow against a colorful, swirling background. At the bottom right, dandelion seeds are shown blowing from a seed head. The text 'WHAT IF NOTHING WAS FIXED ?' is centered over the collage in a white serif font.
